BY EASYCOACH BUS

The bus takes roughly 2 hours and 41 minutes from the Head Office in Haileselassie, Railways Godown via Kamandura – Mai Mahiu to Narok Total Petrol Station, Kula Corner Restaurant.

Prices and availability can be checked via <http://www.easycoach.co.ke/departures--fares.html>

BY MATATU

The matatu is a local and privately owned mini-bus that is able to transfer people from place to place. They are often decorated, featuring portraits of famous people or slogans and sayings. The matatu goes from Nairobi centre to Narok Shell Petrol Station. From there you can take the next matatu into the Masai Mara, Sekenani gate. Be careful with your backpacks!

Station: Nyamakima Matatu Station in Nairobi

Price: The matatu is approximately $7 to $10,- per person one way from Nairobi all the way to Sekenani town, Masai Mara depending on your luggage. We can ask the driver to come and drop you off at the camp.

Time: It takes roughly 5-6 hours from Nairobi to the camp.

Time table:

Nairobi to Narok:	START 7:30/8:00 The matatu runs every hour until 4 PM.
Narok to Sekenani town	9:00 to 14:00 o'clock
Sekenani town to Narok	6:00 to 10:30
Narok to Nairobi	7:30 to 4 PM

Sundays: The time-tables for the bus and the matatu might be different on a Sunday.

Please plan your travels accordingly.

NOTE THAT: Please be careful about your belongings. Please refrain from travelling at night.

The matatu only leaves once full. In Narok, please take the second matatu into Sekenani gate.

SELF-DRIVE

Driving from Nairobi to Narok town +/- 3 hours via the A104 & B3.

DRIVING FROM NAROK TOWN TO THE MASAI MARA - 1,5 to 2 hours

Once reaching Narok town, there is a fuel station just across the river which is a great stop for some food, using the toilet and getting some snacks.

Leaving Narok to Sekenani Gate will take you about roughly 2 hours depending on which vehicle you are travelling with. Please take the C12 and go only straight, all the way to the entrance of the park and give us a call (or time reference) and we will pick you up!

The road to Narok has been almost fully repaired, keep in mind that at the end of the tar road the road you drive on a dirt road. This has been graded and is in good condition (July 2011). This road goes until the Sekenani Gate.

Once in the reserve the roads are ok, but not the best. A 4x4 vehicle is recommended.

AIR TRANSFERS

From Wilson airport to Keekorok airstrip. We recommend booking through www.flysafarilink.com or www.airkenya.com or www.mombasaairsafari.com

The flight will take 45 minutes to an hour. Prices are subject to change due to high or low season. Please check the websites for the latest price-update.
